CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO
DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES

Title: Sheriff's Captain
Job Code: 8312 (PERS)

DEFINITION

Under general direction, the captain, reporting to executive command, has responsibility for the overall command and administration of a facility or section. As a member of command/management level staff, the captain is responsible for implementing department goals and objectives at the facility/section level. The Sheriff's Captain is responsible for all personnel, equipment and operations assigned to that facility/section.

As such, the captain sets expectations, priorities and goals for subordinates; evaluates the work performance of employees both formally and informally and facilitates training. The captain conducts inspection of assigned facility/section for security, physical integrity, cleanliness, health and safety issues and provision of contracted services; oversees mandated state/local inspections and ensures appropriate readiness, deployment and allocation of all equipment. The captain monitors both the operations and administration of the assigned facility/section. Administrative responsibilities include documentation of methodology and data collection.

The captain establishes and maintains communication with individuals from other criminal justice, legal, governmental or private agencies in order to exchange information and coordinate activities. The captain participates in government meetings, community meetings and community events.

The captain assists higher level command staff by completing research and analysis, feasibility studies, and other special projects; reviews department policies and procedures.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES

- The class of Sheriff's Captain is distinguished from that of Sheriff's Lieutenant in that a captain coordinates with other command staff members, and directs and administers the formulation and preparation of the operational and fiscal controls for the facility/section. It is the operational size and/or the scope/diversity/responsibility of these assignments that distinguishes the captains from lieutenants, who exercise administrative authority in more circumscribed units or watches. The captain is responsible for managing a major function or rendering management advice to executive command authority. The captain performs duties focused on planning, organizing, directing and controlling resources and program delivery. The captain is responsible for facility/section operations and activity 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- The class of captain is distinguished from the employees in the next higher class, Chief Deputy: Division Commander, as the captain is responsible for the management of a facility/section whereas the chief is charged with the direction of all aspects of a division encompassing multiple facilities/sections/units.

Captains may assume the duties of a division commander in the absence of the chief deputy as directed.

SUPERVISION EXERCISED

The captain, as facility/section commander, is responsible for the 24/7 operation and administration of a facility / section; directly and indirectly manages and evaluates the
