Job Code: 0981

INTRODUCTION

Under administrative direction, this class provides mid-level management functions in the San Francisco Community College District with responsibility for a section, program or defined functional area and may assume responsibility for one or more section(s) or operational area(s) or operationally-related services.

Incumbents in these positions make decisions which impact the daily operations and implementation of established procedures and policies of the related units/sections and solve problems requiring analyses of issues that may result in deviations from routine processes, new technology and/or additional resources. These Managers typically contact and/or establish working relationships with others at similar levels within the organization and coordinate budget preparation, monitoring of expenditures and financial reporting for the assigned section; and perform related duties as required.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES

Distinctions between class levels in the management series are based on the program's complexity, sensitivity and/or size, organizational impact, the nature and number of functions/programs managed, decision-making responsibility, level of supervision exercised, nature of positions supervised, and the nature and scope of duties assumed such as hand-on work versus planning and policy development activities.

Incumbents in 0981 Manager I, SFCCD assume responsibility for multiple sections and provide leadership over related functions or services. Inappropriate decisions at this level would impact the economic vitality, health, or welfare of a segment of the District population.

Incumbents make decisions which require discretion in applying general goal and policy statements and in resolving organizational and service delivery problems. At this level, inappropriate decisions may compromise the effective functioning of the section and result in a negative impact on the health or welfare of a segment of the District population.

This class is distinguished from the 0982 Manager II, SFCCD by the latter's responsibility for one or more large section(s) or functional areas. This class is further distinguished from the 0982 Manager II, SFCCD by the latter's responsibility for providing complex leadership to diverse programs or services.

SUPERVISION EXERCISED:

Typically exercises management and supervision over mid-level staff or supervisors of clerical, maintenance and/or technical employees.

MAJOR, IMPORTANT, AND ESSENTIAL DUTIES

The duties specified below are representative of the range of duties assigned to this job code/class and are not intended to be an inclusive list.

1. Manage programs, operational activities, or projects of assigned section or program area; supervise, train and evaluate the activities of personnel and/or coordinates and monitors the work of consultants and contractors working for the department; work with other managers and staff to evaluate and implement goals, responsibilities, policies and procedures of the division.

2. Monitor the work of and coach subordinates to improve performance.
3. Evaluate procedures, identify and analyze problems and issues and may implement and document new procedures of the assigned section/program.
4. Participate in budget development by providing detailed justification and persuasive arguments for proposals or initiatives.
5. Coordinate budget preparation, monitor expenditures and financial reporting for assigned section; prepare reports, memoranda, and correspondence; and maintain statistical records; implement and closely monitor budget expenditures; provide executive management with an early warning and practical options to potential cost overruns.
6. Direct the allocation of resources to achieve timely outcomes and measurable goals within budget; adjust plans and programs to meet emerging or new programs, while continuing to address major departmental priorities.
7. Assist in developing and implementing operational policies to ensure the efficient operation of section or program.

INTRODUCTION

Under administrative direction, incumbents in this class provide mid-level management functions in the San Francisco Community College District with responsibility for a section, program or defined functional area and may assume responsibility for one or more section(s) or operational area(s) or operationally-related services.

Incumbents in these positions make decisions which impact the daily operations and implementation of established procedures and policies of the related units/sections and solve problems requiring analyses of issues that may result in deviations from routine processes, new technology and/or additional resources. These Managers typically contact and/or establish working relationships with others at similar levels within the organization and coordinate budget preparation, monitoring of expenditures and financial reporting for the assigned section.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES

Distinctions between class levels in the management series are based on the program's complexity, sensitivity and/or size, organizational impact, the nature and number of functions/programs managed, decision-making responsibility, level of supervision exercised, nature of positions supervised, and the nature and scope of duties assumed such as hand-on work versus planning and policy development activities.

Incumbents in 0982 Manager II, SFCCD assume responsibility for one or more large section(s) or functional areas and provide complex leadership over diverse programs or services. Inappropriate decisions at this level would impact the economic vitality, health, or welfare of a large segment of the District population.

This class is distinguished from the 0981 Manager I, SFCCD by the former's responsibility for multiple sections providing complex, related functions or services. Inappropriate decisions at the SFUSD Manager II level would impact the economic vitality, health, or welfare of a segment of the District population.

This class is further distinguished from the 0983 Manager III, SFCCD by the latter's responsibility for divisions which provide routine programs and services within a broad functional area. Incumbents in these positions make decisions which typically involve program planning and directing, as well as, organizing new and future resource needs. These decisions directly impact the effective functioning of the division and incumbents develop policies and/or procedures affecting the District infrastructure or the provision and delivery of public services. Inappropriate decisions would negatively affect the health and welfare of a segment of the population or the economic vitality of a segment of District community.

SUPERVISION EXERCISED:

Typically exercises management and supervision over mid-level staff or supervisors of clerical, maintenance and/or technical employees.
