Title: MANAGER I, SFUSD
Job Code: 0991

INTRODUCTION

Under administrative direction, this class provides mid-level management functions in the San Francisco Unified School District with responsibility for a section, program or defined functional area and may assume responsibility for one or more section(s) or operational area(s) or operationally-related services.

Incumbents in these positions make decisions which impact the daily operations and implementation of established procedures and policies of the related units/sections and solve problems requiring analyses of issues that may result in deviations from routine processes, new technology and/or additional resources. These Managers typically contact and/or establish working relationships with others at similar levels within the organization and coordinate budget preparation, monitoring of expenditures and financial reporting for the assigned section; and perform related duties as required.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES

Distinctions between class levels in the management series are based on the program's complexity, sensitivity and/or size, organizational impact, the nature and number of functions/programs managed, decision-making responsibility, level of supervision exercised, nature of positions supervised, and the nature and scope of duties assumed such as hand-on work versus planning and policy development activities.

Incumbents in this class assume responsibility for multiple sections and provide leadership over related functions or services. Inappropriate decisions at this level would impact the economic vitality, health, or welfare of a segment of the District population.

Incumbents make decisions which require discretion in applying general goal and policy statements and in resolving organizational and service delivery problems. At this level, inappropriate decisions may compromise the effective functioning of the section and result in a negative impact on the health or welfare of a segment of the District population.

This class is distinguished from the SFUSD Manager II by the latter's responsibility for one or more large section(s) or functional areas. This class is further distinguished from the SFUSD Manager II by the latter's responsibility for providing complex leadership to diverse programs or services.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED/EXERCISED:

Typically reports to SFUSD senior level managers, Executive Director or Director

Typically exercises management and supervision over mid-level staff or supervisors of clerical, maintenance and/or technical employees

MAJOR, IMPORTANT, AND ESSENTIAL DUTIES

The duties specified below are representative of the range of duties assigned to this job code/class and are not intended to be an inclusive list.

1. Manage programs, operational activities, or projects of assigned section or program area; supervise, train and evaluate the activities of personnel and/or coordinates and monitors the work of consultants and contractors working for the department; work with other managers and staff to evaluate and implement goals, responsibilities, policies and procedures of the division.

Incumbents in this class assume responsibility for one or more large section(s) or functional areas and provide complex leadership over diverse programs or services. Inappropriate decisions at this level would impact the economic vitality, health, or welfare of a large segment of the District population.

This class is distinguished from the SFUSD Manager I by the former's responsibility for multiple sections providing complex, related functions or services. Inappropriate decisions at the SFUSD Manager II level would impact the economic vitality, health, or welfare of a segment of the District population.

This class is further distinguished from the SFUSD Director by the latter's responsibility for divisions which provide routine programs and services within a broad functional area. Incumbents in these positions make decisions which typically involve program planning and directing, as well as, organizing new and future resource needs. These decisions directly impact the effective functioning of the division and incumbents develop policies and/or procedures affecting the District infrastructure or the provision and delivery of public services. Inappropriate decisions would negatively affect the health and welfare of a segment of the population or the economic vitality of a segment of District community.

INTRODUCTION

Under general administrative direction, incumbents in this class function as senior managers operating within a broad policy framework and typically manage a division of the San Francisco Unified School District. Incumbents assume sole responsibility for a functional area(s) of service; coordinate and implement program planning; and define organizational structure, staffing requirements, resource allocation and identification of future resource needs. Incumbents also interface with all managerial levels of the District and outside agencies, and serve as representatives of the division or department in meetings involving administrative systems, policies or procedures; and perform related duties as required.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES

Distinctions between class levels in the management series are based on the program's complexity, sensitivity and/or size, organizational impact, the nature and number of functions/programs managed, decision-making responsibility, level of supervision exercised, nature of positions supervised, and the nature and scope of duties assumed such as hand-on work rather than planning and policy development activities.

Incumbents in this class typically assume responsibility for divisions which provide routine programs and services within a broad functional area. Incumbents in these positions make decisions which typically involve program planning and directing, as well as, organizing new and future resource needs. These decisions directly impact the effective functioning of the division and incumbents develop policies and/or procedures affecting the District infrastructure or the provision and delivery of public services. policy, operations, and administrative procedures.

2. Develop, implement and maintain procedures, administrative monitoring practices and controls in order to obtain smooth and effective operation of a division; coordinate work activities of one division with other divisions within the department to prevent delays in required actions or to improve programs or services; assist in the identification, development and implementation of departmental goals, objectives, policies, and priorities; assist in the determination of resource allocation and levels of service according to established policies.
3. Receive and analyze division and departmental reports; direct the preparation of monthly and annual reports; direct the gathering and analysis of information and reports necessary to document and evaluate processes.
4. Monitor the work of and coach subordinates to improve performance.
5. Direct the allocation of resources to achieve timely outcomes and measurable goals within budget; adjust plans and programs to meet emerging or new programs, while continuing to address major departmental priorities.
6. Monitor and evaluates the effectiveness and efficiency of the division's service delivery system, organizational structure, staffing levels, financial systems, and other internal operations; identify and recommend alternative approaches or improvements; implement revisions, adjustments and changes.
7. May serve as liaison for the District with a variety of outside staff, policy-making officials, and officials of outside agencies; explain and justify Departmental or administrative procedures, policies, or programs; negotiate and resolve difficult and complex issues and problems.
8. May plan, develop, implement or direct major or complex projects or programs which span a number of the department's established sections or divisions; direct the research of complex, highly technical issues; analyze alternative solutions or approaches; recommend most effective course of action.
9. Participate in budget development by providing detailed justification and persuasive arguments for proposals or initiatives; oversee and administer division budget; direct and monitor expenditures in accordance with the approved budget; direct the preparation and maintenance of a wide variety of statistical, fiscal, and operational reports and studies; and provide executive management with an early warning and practical options to potential cost overruns.
