Employee Spotlight

Quick Links to Newsletter Sections:

address your questions and concerns.

plan? San Francisco's funds. The series is available on connect residents with information and answer some of the common questions people have between now and December 31st without a qualifying event.

Cafeteria Plan based on recent IRS SFHSS Member Rules and Section 125 Board approved an Addendum to the On May 28, 2020, the Health Service Coverage & Flexible distances.

communities and offers relief to those workers that may prevent the spread of COVID-19 within first responder

Providing safe and accessible temporary housing helps COVID-19, the City has made a number of hotel rooms To help support essential workers responding to in times of hope and despair, triumph, and setback. It is community's priorities, responses, and activism in Celebrate 50 Years of Pride!

Tune in to an in-depth conversation on racial

Racial Justice and stay-at-home order.

Bryant Terry talks to noted creatives of African descent (farmers, chefs, authors, activists, Please send in your photos no later than 12:00pm on Thursday, June 18 directly employees, as well as the City's upcoming newsletter and social media.

show our Pride in-person, we want to ensure that your voices are celebrated, virtually.

and Rally is scheduled for Saturday, June 27, San Francisco Pride's Online Celebration

19th with the San Francisco Juneteenth Festival have commemorated the emancipation on June

Celebrate 50 Years of Pride!

Diaspora (MoAD) Weekly &

protests, and movements. In the coming weeks and months.

A key goal of these service increases is to support activities to resume, including:

Step-by-Step:

Human Resources representative.

City workers reporting in person to their workplaces (DHR). Several key requirements for returning to

and our families healthy during the continued COVID-19 that has made these killings possible. These feelings are me that in 2020 we are in this place. Each time another name signifies emancipation from slavery 155 years ago, it saddens moral and ethical responsibility to do what we can to stop. We believe that as human beings, we have injustice.

Thank you to all who have stepped forward during this time and workforce diversity, inclusion, and equity goals and can be remember that the 24/7 Employee Assistance Program is much more work to do.

Get tested for COVID-19 regularly (if required by your worksite)

Complete a COVID-19 health screening before reporting to work day mouth at all times when near co-workers or with members of the public to reduce unfair barriers to employment and provide an inclusive and our families healthy during the continued COVID-19 emergency.

That is why the City of San Francisco and the organizations and individuals working to prevent violence against women.

provide trainings to support workers to deal with stressful situations.

on the application process.

to receive the interest free, low cost loans.

First responders and health care workers are eligible to receive a at a time when the City is working at breakneck speed to N95 and surgical masks for health care providers and first responders, the revised Health holes, that covers only the nose, mouth, and surrounding areas of the lower face. Examples of within 30 feet of an individual that they do