Title: Chief Payroll and Personnel Clerk
Job Code: 1226

DEFINITION
Under general direction, the 1226 Chief Payroll and Personnel Clerk is a second level supervisor responsible for managing the activities of a large, varied and complex payroll/personnel division by supervising, maintaining, and controlling records and developing procedures.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES
Class 1226 Chief Payroll and Personnel Clerk is distinguished from the 1224 Principal Payroll and Personnel Clerk in that the lower level supervises the day to day responsibilities in a payroll/personnel unit. The 1226 Chief Payroll and Personnel Clerk is further distinguished from the 1218 Payroll Supervisor, in that the latter is a managerial position that is responsible for compliance and large projects.

SUPERVISION EXERCISED
Supervises payroll and/or personnel units for a large, complex division or department.

EXAMPLES OF IMPORTANT AND ESSENTIAL DUTIES
According to Civil Service Commission Rule 109, the duties specified below are representative of the range of duties assigned to this job code/class and are not intended to be an inclusive list.

1. Manages and directs assigned staff performing complex payroll/personnel duties using computerized systems, including the maintenance and control of complicated payroll/personnel records.
2. Supervises staff, and assigns and evaluates work performed in areas such as time reporting, payroll and personnel processing, human resources functions, and position control systems.
3. Interprets and implements pertinent laws, ordinances, regulations, policies and procedures to clarify and expedite payroll and personnel processing.
4. Develops and updates procedures and techniques for payroll and related personnel functions; writes new procedures for the implementation of policies; maintains expenditure records; may prepare budget and statistical data.
5. Provides customer service to employees or members of the general public.
6. Determines and verifies proper salary payment in compliance with prescribed rules and regulations, such as various government codes, charter provisions, and union contracts; maintains related accounting controls for audit purposes.
7. Reconciles and maintains position control systems; reviews, updates, and approves the processing of status changes, such as new hires, transfers, leaves of absence, and separations of personnel.
8. Prepares payroll/personnel reports, memos, and responses to correspondence and telephone inquiries regarding a wide variety of salary and payroll/personnel matters.
