DEFINITION
Under general supervision, performs professional benefits work for the Health Service System's Membership and Medical Claims Divisions and performs related duties as required. Explains the City's health, dental, vision, prescription, disability plans, Flexible Spending Accounts, and Dependent Day Care and Medical Reimbursement programs. Essential functions include: providing written and oral benefits information; advising and counseling members, retirees, and surviving spouses or domestic partners on available benefits; analyzing and resolving member claim problems; processing complex claims; initiating, compiling, calculating, and processing adjustments and manual payments; interacting frequently with staff and providing training as needed; consulting with plan providers and department representatives; researching, reconciling, and resolving employee benefits and claims issues; and conducting workshops and giving presentations.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES
Class 1210 Benefits Analyst is the professional journey level in the Benefits series. This class is distinguished from the 1209 Benefits Technician in that the latter performs technical and support functions, while the Analyst performs a full range of complex and analytical duties within a framework of established procedures. At this level, incumbents typically work independently and exercise judgment and initiative. Incumbents work with only occasional instruction or assistance, are knowledgeable of the operating procedures and policies of the work unit, and work is normally reviewed only upon completion and for overall results. The journey level is distinguished from supervisory professional levels in that the former class has no supervisory responsibility over Benefits Analysts.

SUPERVISION EXERCISED
May exercise technical and functional supervision over technical/clerical staff.
