San Francisco's Park and Recreation Department unveiled the newly renovated Golden Gate Tennis Center in collaboration with the Tennis Coalition. This is a significant milestone that enhances the accessibility and enjoyment of tennis in the heart of San Francisco.

In addition to the tennis courts, the Golden Gate Tennis Center features over 200 hours of play, 5 pickle-ball courts, new patio and restrooms, and is a gathering place for the community. The opening highlights the commitment to creating spaces that promote health, well-being, and community engagement.

This Women's History Month, we celebrate the contributions of women who have made a difference in our lives. From trailblazers in science, technology, and sports, to leaders in government and advocacy, women have broken barriers and opened doors for future generations.

For the month of April, San Francisco Public Library Events offers a wide range of programs and series that focus on personal money management and cultivating healthy financial habits. These events provide valuable resources and information to help individuals improve their financial well-being.

April is Financial Literacy Month, and the San Francisco Public Library encourages everyone to participate in these programs and learn how to make informed financial decisions.

The General Plan is a comprehensive document that shapes the future of San Francisco. The SF Planning Department is leading the process to update and improve the General Plan. Stakeholder input is needed to ensure that the plan reflects the community's values and priorities.

The Department on the Status of Women is proud to recognize our own trailblazer, Jacqueline Joseph-Veal. As the first woman of color to serve as an Associate Chief Medical Officer, she has made significant contributions to the San Francisco Department of Public Health. Her dedication and leadership have set a precedent for future generations.

The SF Planning Department is currently working on the SF Planning Department's Press Release. This document outlines the key points and updates related to the Planning Department's ongoing projects and initiatives.

San Francisco Commissioned Artists is an initiative that supports local artists by providing them with opportunities to showcase their work in public spaces. This program not only enhances the city's cultural landscape but also supports emerging and established artists in the Bay Area.

The Summer Together initiative aims to help San Francisco students impacted by learning loss due to the pandemic. The initiative offers a combination of free tutoring, enrichment activities, and support services to help children get back on track.

San Francisco has been working hard to bring back the city's usual activities. As the city moves to the Red Tier, many organizations, Cultural District offices, senior sites, testing and vaccination sites, food distribution sites, and summer camps have been able to reopen.

The following activities may be reopened in Red Tier:

- Gyms and climbing walls
- Fitness studios
- Basketball courts
- Pickleball courts
- Tennis courts
- Dance classes
- Yoga classes
- Zumba
- HIIT
- Dance classes
- Yoga classes
- Zumba
- HIIT

Please check the SF Planning Department's Press Release for the full list of activities that are currently allowed in Red Tier.

Do your part: Stop the spread. Together we can save lives.

- Regularly wash your hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds.
- Cover your mouth and nose with a face covering when you are in close contact with people who are not from your household.
- Stay at least 6 feet apart from people you don't live with.
- Avoid large gatherings and events.
- Wear a mask in public places.

Stay Connected to DHR

- Visit SFHSS website
- Follow SFHSS on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram
- Subscribe to the SFHSS newsletter

Remember, your health and the health of others is important. Let's work together to keep our community safe.