

A lead worker has many responsibilities

Coaching

Setting Expectations

Leading by Example

Do you have the tools you need to effectively lead others?

Introducing . . .

A new workshop from DHR Learning and Development

This two-day workshop is ideal for anyone in a lead position responsible for coaching and guiding others on daily tasks.

Participants may include:

Project Specialists

Team Leaders

Crew Leaders

Charge Nurses

District Captains

Lead Workers

Project Managers

Lead Persons

Or anyone in a Lead Role, including Lead Painters, Carpenters, Arborists, Plumbers, Electricians, Laborers and Security Staff

In this highly interactive course, participants will learn to:

Build trust and rapport...

by utilizing effective communication skills

Participants will also learn to:

Provide feedback and coaching...

and document performance

For class details or to sign up, please click here.

For more information, contact Bobbie Lee @ 415-557-4931.

Lead to Succeed

