Despite the City's Public Health Orders that stopped many City operations, including most non-emergency operations, DPH's ApprenticeshipSF program has continued to outreach to diverse, talented individuals to join the City's workforce. Below highlights the importance of supporting DPH's ApprenticeshipSF program during the pandemic:

- ApprenticeshipSF program connects employees to diverse job categories to meet the City's workforce needs, including esential work in the Skilled Crafts and Trades:
  - Infrastructure in times of emergency
  - Maintaining the City's overall infrastructure
  - Providing the best care possible for COVID positive patients.

Under Margot Reed's leadership, ApprenticeshipSF has grown in its depth and breadth of programs. ApprenticeshipSF works with the City to meet pressing needs for essential workers during the pandemic. To support DPH's hiring of essential workers through our Access to City Employment (ACE) Program, we have created and modified our courses into dynamic, virtual learning opportunities. These courses are designed to help employees connect to colleagues, stay in touch with their teams, and help them stay connected to coworkers.
